Pork and potato stew with rollmop, pickle, fried egg and beetroot	appetizer	7,60 EUR 12,70 EUR
Pork and potato stew is an old traditional dish of the seamen in North Germany and England. The seamen and sailors of the old time began to make clean sweep before entering the home port. To this belonged that all the rest of the food has been cooked together and then has been eaten. However, we use for our pork and potato stew fresh, high quality ingredients: fine pickled Holstein breast of ox, beetroot, boiled potatoes and spices.
